Honor Graduates at Hollins

Daughters of Judge George K. and Mrs. Susan G. Anderson, of Clifton Forge, Va., who are members of the graduating class of this year at Hollins College, where their course has been most gratifying to their friends and most creditable to themselves.

were the special guests of President and Mrs. Taft at a beautiful garden party on the east terrace, and they were extensively entertained during their stay of ten days at Mount Vernon. Bishop Harding invited the ladies to attend the exercises at the cathedral, and a delegation of six was sent.

This year there were twenty-nine members present from as many States, and nearly have the ladies spent a more charming time, or has their stay been so full of delightful incidents. Those present this year were:

Regent, Mrs. Howard Townsend; Vice-Regents, Mrs. Susan J. Hudson, Connecticut; Mrs. Charles B. Ball, Virginia; Mrs. Jennie M. Ward, Kansas; Mrs. Ida A. Richardson, Louisiana; Mrs. Elizabeth Rathbone, Michigan; Mrs. Mary T. Letter, Illinois; Miss Harriet Clayton Conners, Delaware; Miss Rebecca B. Flannery, Minnesota; Mrs. J. T. Wilder, Georgia; Mrs. Christine Blair, Missouri; Mrs. Francis S. Conover, New Jersey; Mrs. Thomas Shapard Webb, Tennessee; Miss Amy Townsend, New York; Mrs. Charles C. Harrison, Pennsylvania; Mrs. Thomas S. Maxey, Texas; Mrs. Robert D. Johnston, Alabama; Mrs. Charles B. Manderson, Nebraska; Mrs. Eugene Van Rensselaer, West Virginia; Mrs. John Julius Pringle, South Carolina; Mrs. William F. Barrett, Kentucky; Mrs. Henry W. Rogers, Maryland; Mrs. Lewis W. Irwin, Ohio; Mrs. Francis J. Ricks, Mississippi; Mrs. Mary F. Felling, Oregon; Mrs. Eliza F. Leary, Washington; Mrs. J. Carter Brown, Rhode Island; Mrs. A. B. Andrews, North Carolina.

The class at the Woman's Club have a musical treat for to-morrow afternoon at 5 o'clock when, through the courtesy of Mr. Radcliffe, Miss Hinkle, soprano, and Miss Hussey, contralto, will give a song recital in the club parlors.

After the numbers there will be the usual afternoon social gathering. Anniversary To-Day.

The sixty-third anniversary of the Richmond Male Orphan Asylum will be celebrated this afternoon at 2 o'clock with appropriate exercises. Minnie Folkes is to make the address, and the report will be read by John L. Williams. The boys as usual will sing a number of selections.

To Meet To-morrow.

St. John's Circle of the King's Daughters will hold a very important meeting with Mrs. Ramon D. Garcia, 2618 East Broad Street, Monday afternoon at 4:30. A full attendance is requested.

Closing Recital.

The May class meeting of Miss E. de Aylett Cofer was held yesterday afternoon in her studio, the whole vocal class taking part in the program. Miss Cofer's closing recitals will be held on June 12 and 13.

Miss Segar to Wed Wednesday.

The marriage of Miss Emma Dew Segar, daughter of the late John R. Segar, of Middlesex county, Va., to Nathaniel J. Land, Jr., of Norfolk, will take place on Wednesday, June 2.

The ceremony will be performed at 1:30 o'clock at Edgewood, the ancestral home of her grandfather, Judge A. Browne Evans. The ceremony will be an exceedingly quiet one, owing to the fact that the bride and groom are both in mourning.

There will be no reception. The bride will be given in marriage by her grandfather.

The wedding will be one of the most Important of the season on account of the prominence of the contracting parties. Miss Segar is connected with some of the most prominent families of the State. Her father, the late John R. Segar, was for years one of the most successful business men of the county; her mother, a daughter of Judge A. B. Evans, was unusually accomplished and brilliant; her grandmother belonged to the famous Dew family, while her grandfather, Judge Evans, is one of the most noted lawyers of the State.

Mr. Land is a son of Nathaniel J. Land, Sr., of Emporia, and is very popular and well known both socially and in the business circles of Norfolk, being closely related to James Y. Mason, and a nephew of the late Professor William M. Jones, with whom he has been in business a number of years.

Miss Segar is a very handsome girl and is extremely popular and greatly admired in Baltimore, Norfolk and wherever she has visited in Virginia.

A general meeting of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities will be held in the rooms of the Virginia Historical Society, 707 East Franklin Street, at noon on June 10. On account of the general meeting, the regular meeting of the central committee on Tuesday next will be omitted.

In and Out of Town.

Miss Sara Maupin, of Charlottesville, is in the city.

Misses Brent and Ellen Witt, accompanied by their guest, Miss Rosamond Thompson, of Andover, Mass., left Friday for the commencement at Hollins.

Miss Flora Mason and Mrs. Mason, of Fredericksburg, expect to sail for Europe early in June to be gone for several months.

Miss Lettie Clarke, of Mobile, Ala., who has been the guest of Miss Cora Younger, has gone to Norfolk to visit friends.

Mrs. Louis Borchers, who has been in New York for some time, has returned to her country place, Ednam, near the university.

Miss Mabel O'Ferrall has returned to the city after an absence of several weeks.

Miss Hilda Holloway, of Philadelphia, who was an attractive guest in Richmond during the recent horse show and made a number of friends during her stay here, is now visiting friends in Charlottesville.

Miss Eula Woody has returned to Richmond after a visit to relatives in Newport News.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Richardson, with Dr. Wright, of Richmond, as their guest, have just made the trip from Richmond to Harrisonburg in their automobile.

Miss L. K. Davis, who has been spending some time in Richmond, has gone to Scottsville, Va., for the summer.

Patrician Shoe

The Code

¶The Code of the smartly dressed woman demands that the accessories as well as the gown shall be above criticism.

¶Since the designing of the first Patrician Shoes for Women their makers have studied to please the fashionable and the aesthetic standards of the discriminating woman buyer.

¶The dainty feminine note is strikingly evident in the new Spring Patricians, the variety and beauty of which have never been surpassed.

¶Exclusive women will find each design a beauty of workmanship and finish, and pronounce them all unequalled in style and cut.

Low Cuts, $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00 pair.
